Call: 2005

Education: BA (Hons) University of Manchester, Diploma in Law City University

Email: bathsheba.cassel@walnuthouse.co.uk

Bathsheba's practice encompasses a wide range of criminal law. She both prosecutes and defends across the Western Circuit, although she is happy to accept instructions nationwide.

Bathsheba has had regular trial experience in cases involving offences of:

- serious violence,
- rape and serious sexual offences,
- child abuse,
- robbery,
- firearms offences,
- drugs offences,
- financial crime,
- offences of dishonesty,
- Insolvency Act and Companies Act offences,
- internet crime,
- animal cruelty,
- trading standards offences, and
- motoring crime.

She is a Grade 3 Prosecutor on the Crown Prosecution Service Advocate Panel.
Bathsheba is accredited to undertake public access work.

Bathsheba has experience in the Court of Appeal (Criminal Division) and Administrative Court, acting for both the Crown and Defence.

She also has particular experience in asset forfeiture. She has been instructed regularly to appear for the Crown and Defence in confiscation matters since spending 6 months seconded to the Revenue and Customs Prosecutions Office's Asset Forfeiture Division in 2008 (now part of the CPS).

In addition to her general criminal practice, Bathsheba has represented prisoners at parole hearings.
